

Did you know?

Long ago in Ireland and Scotland, people carved faces into turnips to make lanterns, long before pumpkins.