

Did you know?

Bats love living in old attics, barns and church towers because they are dark and quiet.