

Halloween

Bold & Easy Coloring Book

50 cute and spooky designs, each with a
"Did you know?" Halloween fact.

Your free print-at-home edition from The Gentle Bookshop.

This book belongs to:

Free for personal, home and classroom use. Please do not sell it.

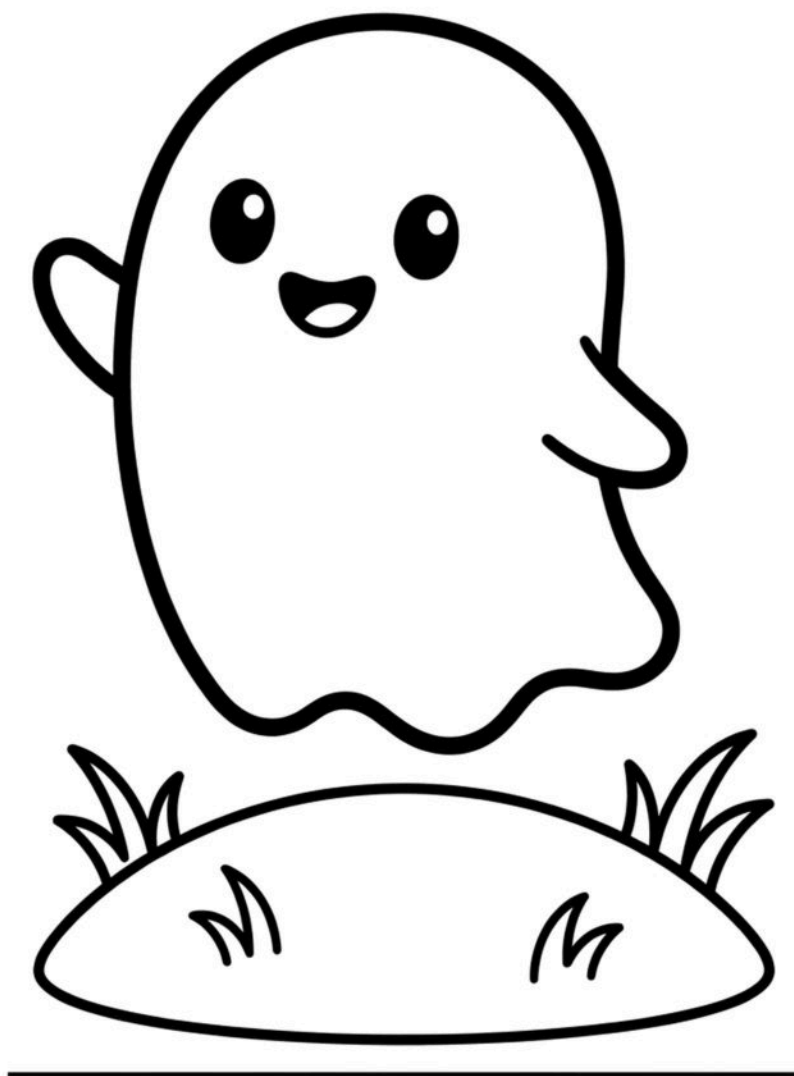

To share it, send friends the link instead of the file:

ainjection.github.io/halloween-books

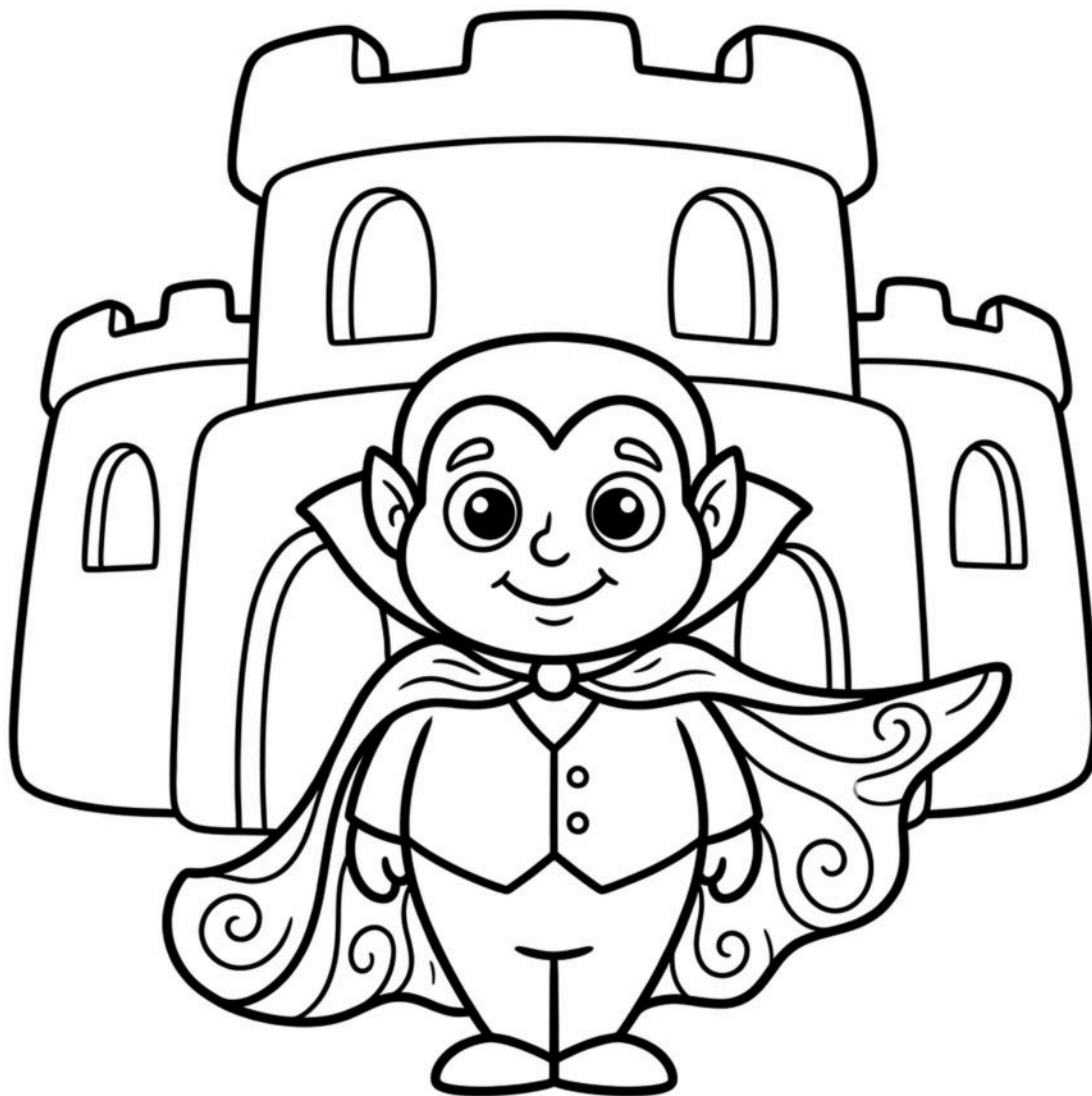

Did you know?

Pumpkins are a fruit, not a vegetable, because they grow from a flower and are full of seeds.

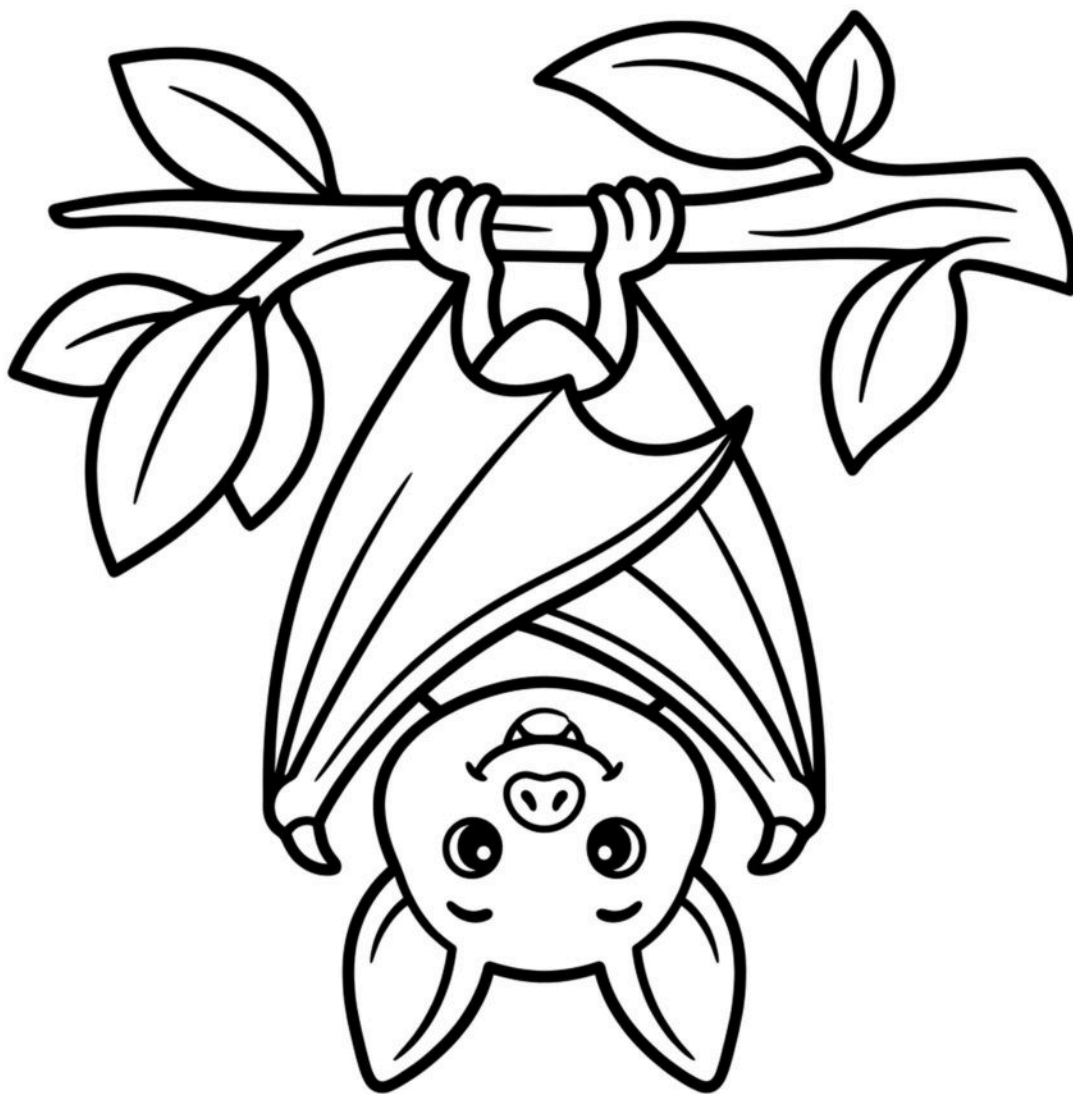

Did you know?

Halloween began as an old Celtic festival called Samhain, celebrated in Ireland more than 2,000 years ago.

Did you know?

Bram Stoker's famous story Dracula was first published in 1897.

Did you know?
Bats are the only mammals that can truly fly.

Did you know?

The word 'witch' comes from the Old English word 'wicce'.

Did you know?

In old stories, a witch's animal helper, often a black cat, was called a familiar.

Did you know?

Old broomsticks were made from a bundle of twigs tied to a stick, called a besom.

Did you know?

Long ago in Ireland and Scotland, people carved faces into turnips to make lanterns, long before pumpkins.

Did you know?

Candy corn was invented in the 1880s. One company sold it under the name 'Chicken Feed'.

Did you know?

A grown-up has 206 bones, but a baby is born with around 300 that slowly join together.

Did you know?

Bats love living in old attics, barns and church towers because they are dark and quiet.

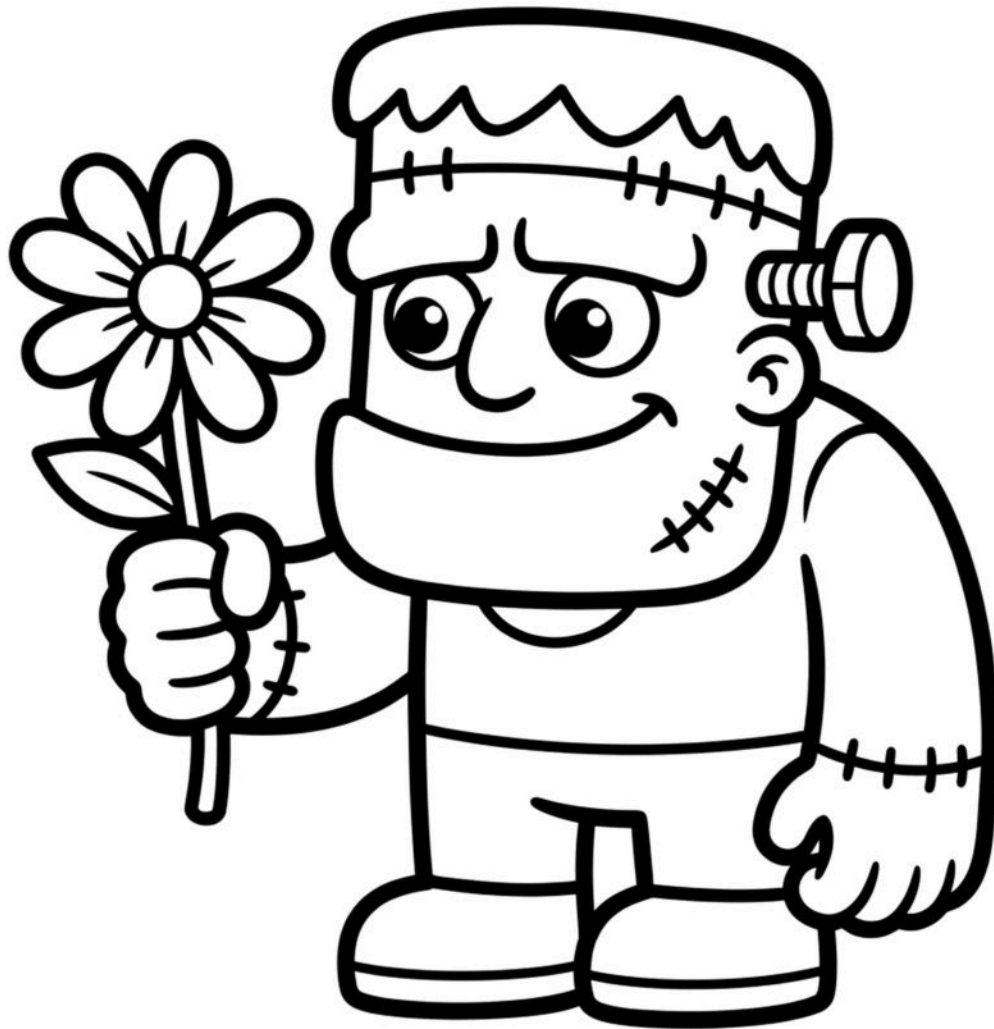

Did you know?

In Scotland and Ireland, children went 'guising': dressing up and telling a joke or singing a song for a treat.

Did you know?

Ancient Egyptians wrapped mummies in hundreds of meters of linen bandages.

Did you know?

Mary Shelley began writing Frankenstein when she was just 18 years old.

Did you know?

Vampire bats are real! They live in Mexico, Central America and South America.

Did you know?

In the past, big cauldrons were ordinary cooking pots hung over an open fire.

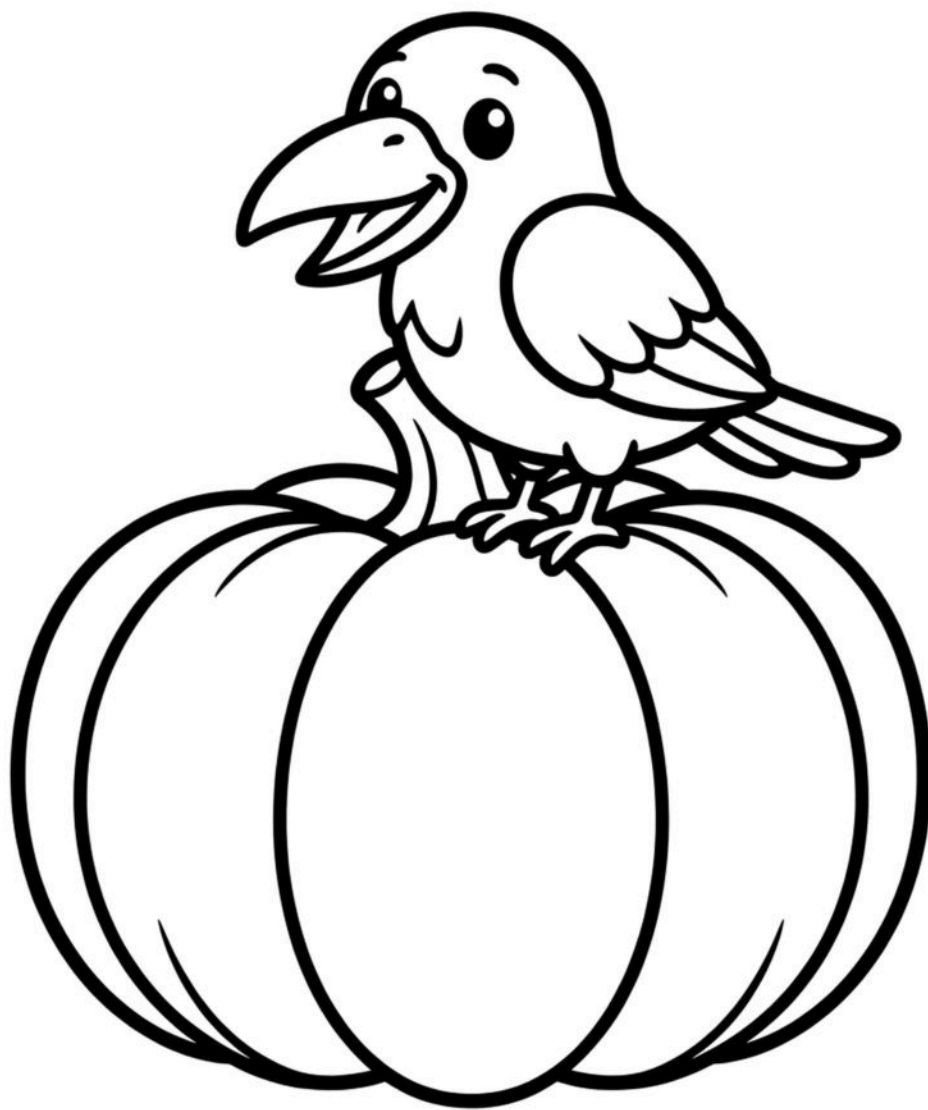

Did you know?

Some of Britain's oldest houses are said to be haunted, and people go on ghost tours to visit them.

Did you know?

Farmers have used scarecrows to protect their crops for about 3,000 years.

Did you know?

Crows are so clever that they can remember and recognize human faces.

Did you know?

Wolves howl to talk to their pack, not at the moon.

Did you know?

Trick-or-treating became popular across America in the 1950s.

Did you know?

The word 'ghost' comes from an Old English word, 'gast', which meant spirit or breath.

Did you know?
A group of cats is called a clowder.

Did you know?
A group of bats is called a colony.

Did you know?

A full moon on Halloween night is rare. It only happens about once every 19 years.

Did you know?
The film Bride of Frankenstein came out in 1935.

Did you know?

In Mexico, the Day of the Dead is celebrated on 1 and 2 November with colorful sugar skulls.

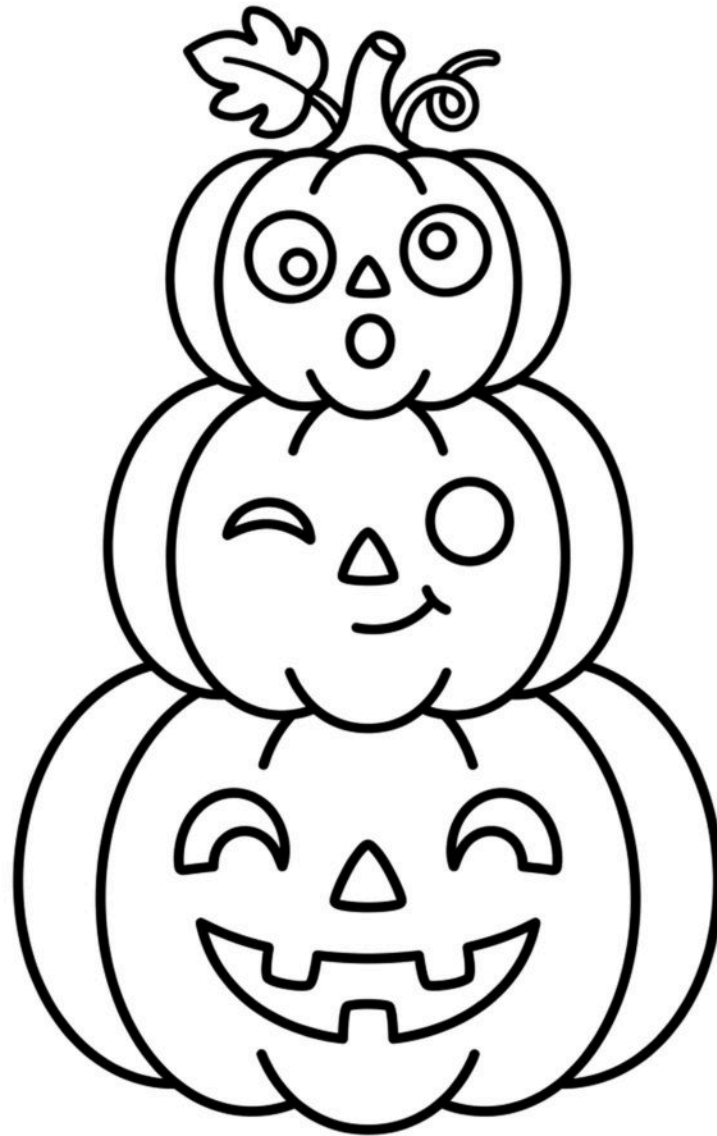

Did you know?

When you feel scared, your heart beats faster to get your body ready to move.

Did you know?

A bolt of lightning is about five times hotter than the surface of the Sun.

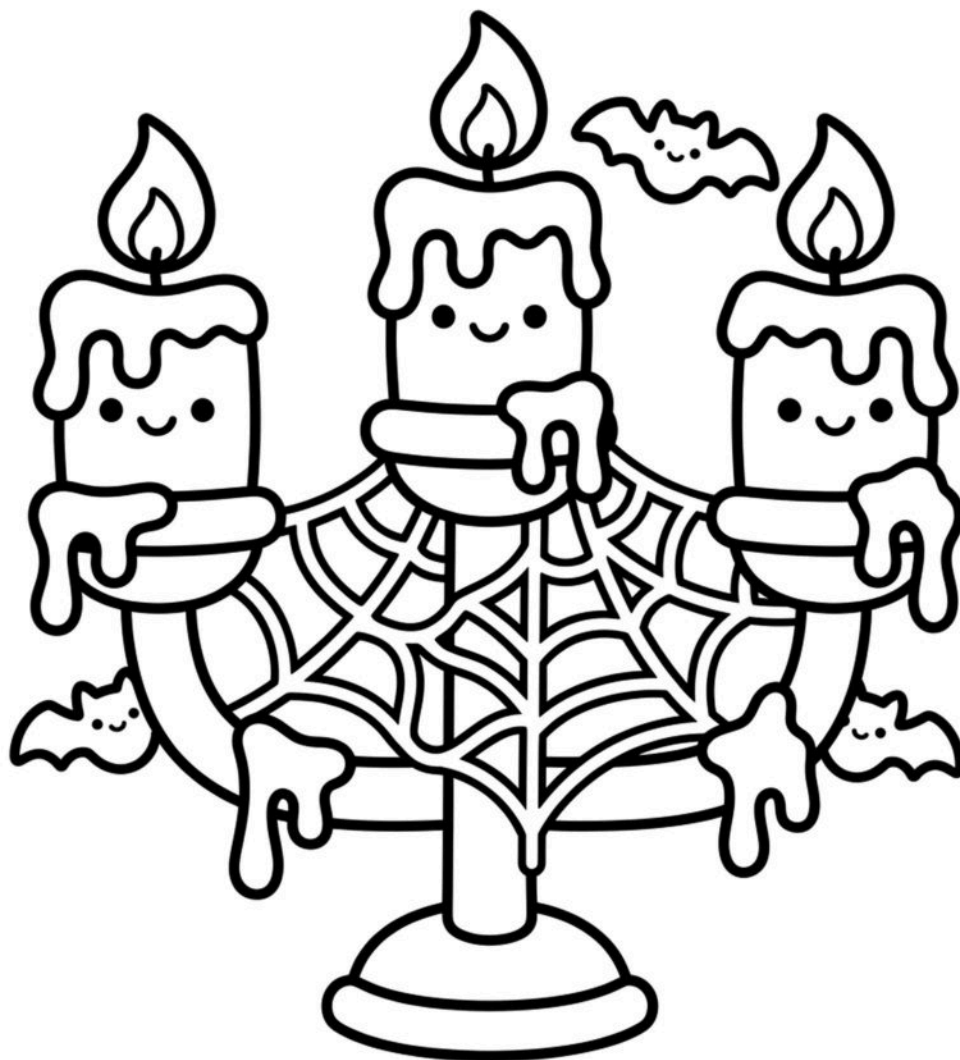

Did you know?
Pumpkins are about 90 percent water.

Did you know?

The biggest pumpkin ever grown weighed more than a small car:
over 1,200 kilograms.

Did you know?

Orange and black are Halloween colors: orange for the autumn harvest and black for the long dark nights.

Did you know?

In the story of Hansel and Gretel, the witch's house was made of gingerbread and candy.

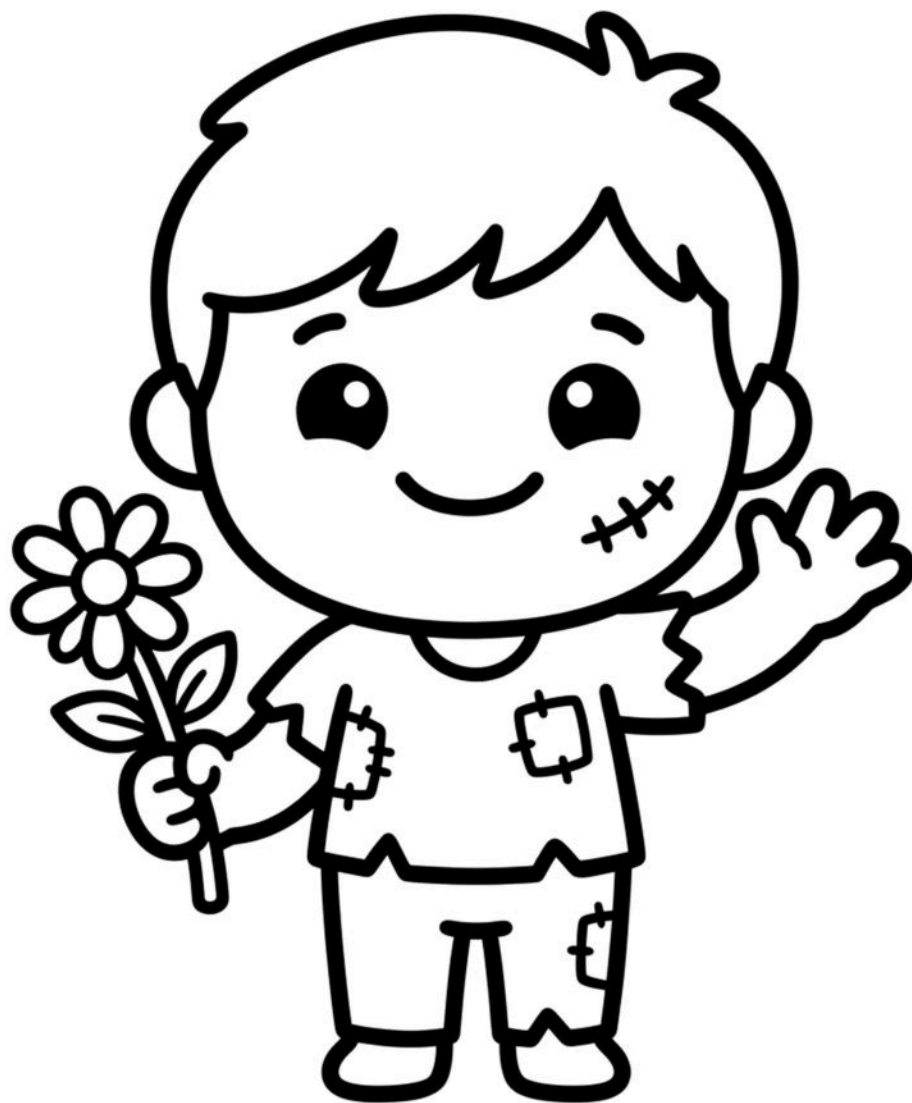

Did you know?

Vampire bats were named after the vampires in old stories, not the other way around.

Did you know?

People were already sending Halloween greeting cards more than 100 years ago.

Did you know?

The word 'zombie' comes from Haiti, an island country in the Caribbean.

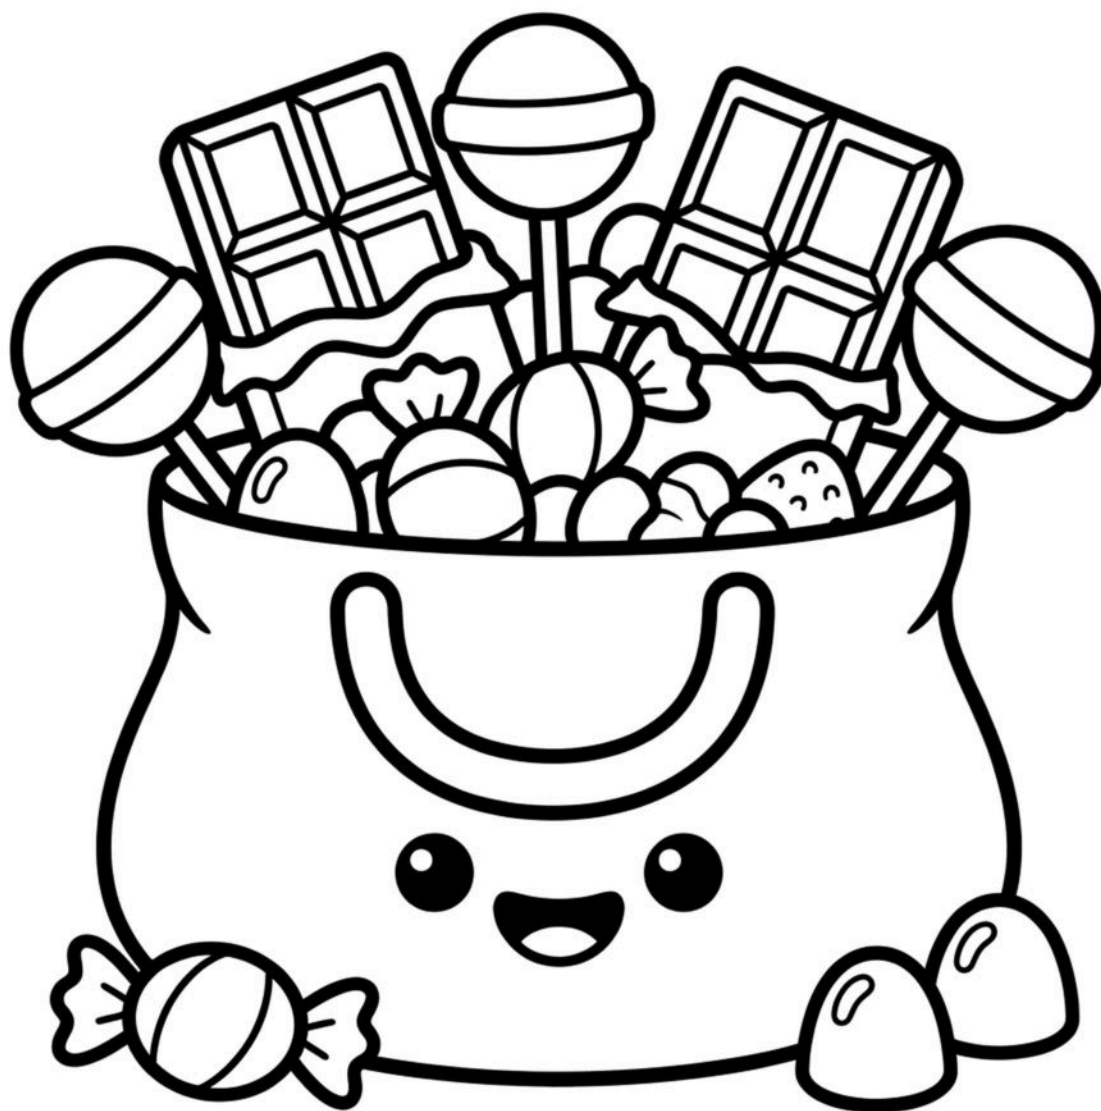

Did you know?
Cats sleep for around 12 to 16 hours a day.

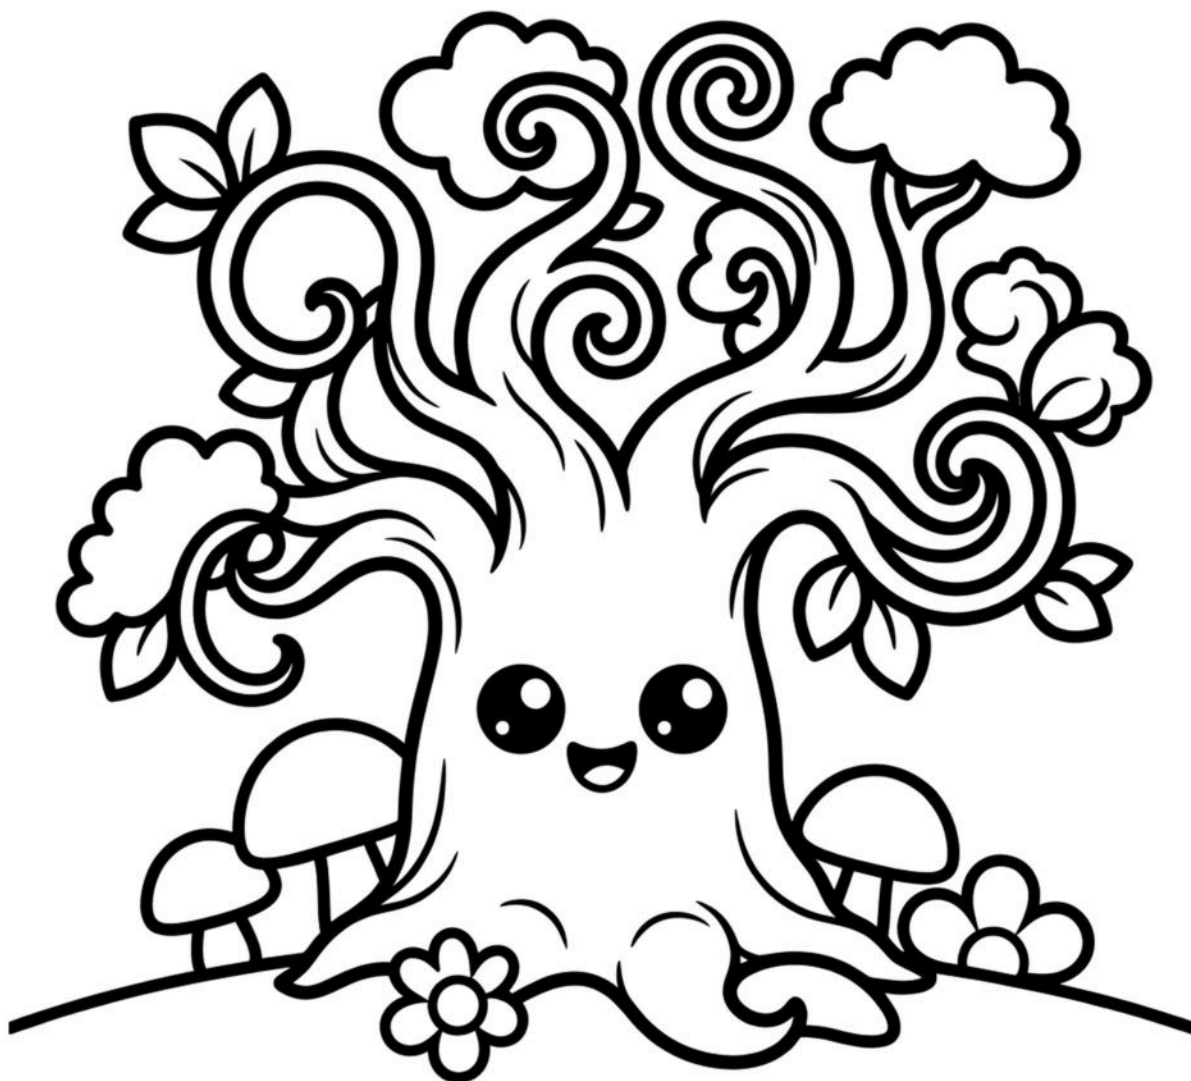

Did you know?

A single bat can eat hundreds of insects in one night.

Did you know?

Chocolate is made from the seeds of the cacao tree, called cocoa beans.

Did you know?
Some trees can live for thousands of years.

Did you know?

Some mushrooms glow in the dark! It is called bioluminescence.

Did you know?

The Headless Horseman comes from The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, written by Washington Irving in 1820.

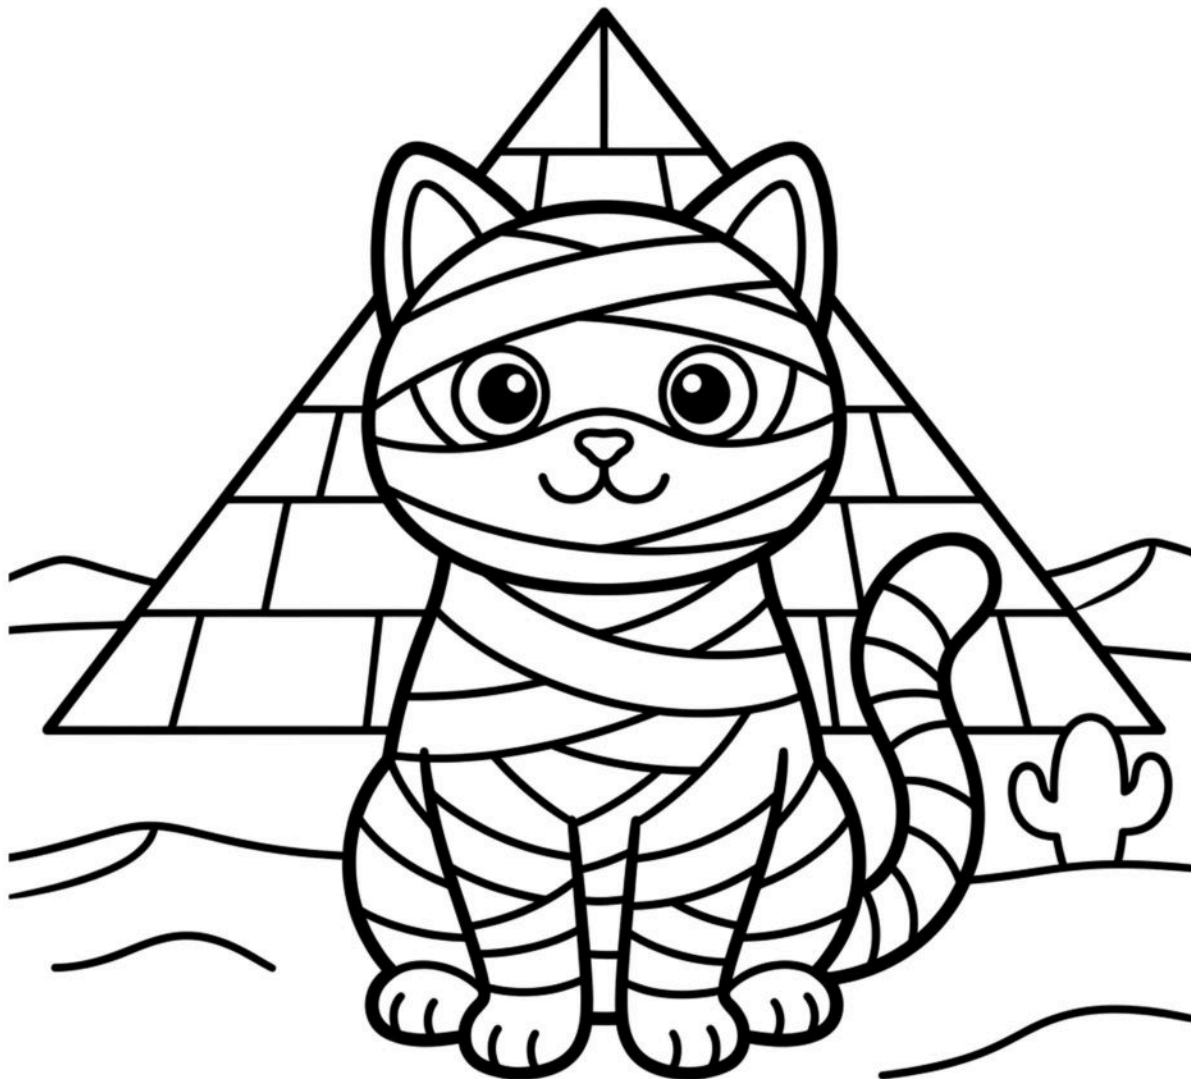

Did you know?

A cat can jump about five times its own height in one leap.

Did you know?

Sailors once told tales of the Flying Dutchman, a ghost ship that could never reach port.

Did you know?
Ancient Egyptians mummified cats as well as people.

Did you know?

Gargoyles were made as water spouts, to carry rainwater away from the walls of buildings.

Did you know?

People say that long ago, dressing up at Halloween was a way to hide from wandering spirits.

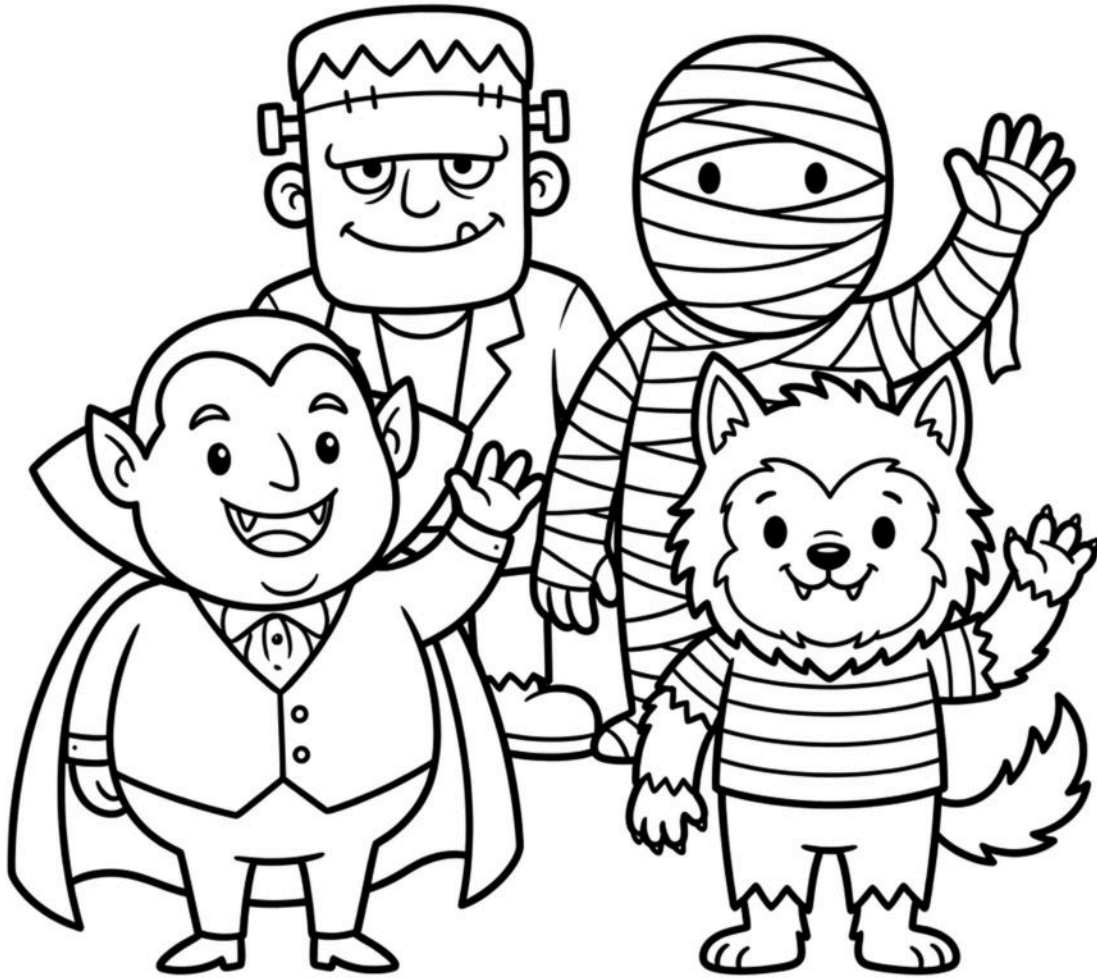

Did you know?

In the Dracula stories, vampires sleep in coffins during the day.

Did you know?

Some castles in Britain are hundreds of years old and people still live in them.

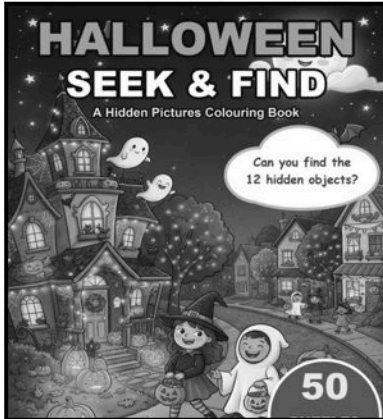

Did you know?

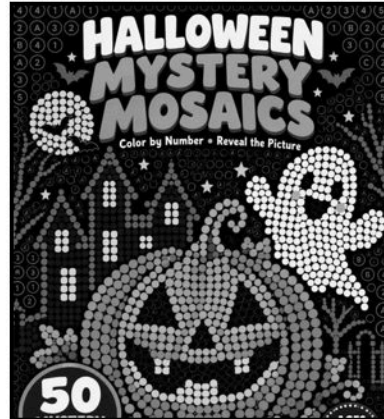

Halloween is on 31 October, the night before All Saints' Day, so it was called All Hallows' Eve.

Loved this book?

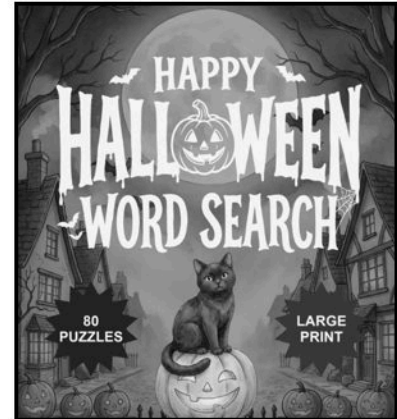

Here are more from The Gentle Bookshop

Seek & Find ages 4-8

Mystery Mosaics
ages 6-12

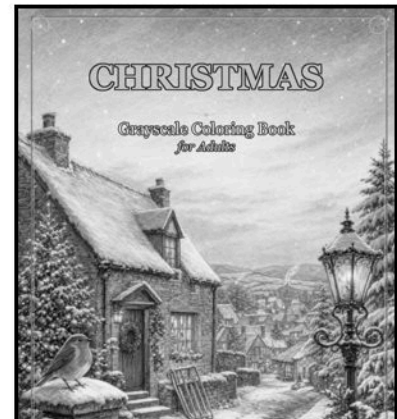

Big-Print Word Search
adults

Grayscale Halloween
adults

Christmas Seek & Find
ages 4-8

Christmas Grayscale
adults

Tap any cover to see it on Amazon, or visit ainjection.github.io/halloween-books